CHAPTER XV.

FOUR GENTLEMEN OF WEALTH.

THE situation of Harvey Irons on the hayboat was critical in the extreme; but, great as was his danger, he regarded it as nothing compared to the danger that threatened Alma. He was almost exhausted from hunger, cold and grief. The boat slowly drifted in a southern direction, making toward the eastern side of the Caspian. It drifted out of the ordinary course of navigation, and he watched in vain for a passing vessel. He watched as long as possible the course of the ameer's sloop and reasoned that it was making for the nearest Bokharan port. Night came on, with no rescuing vessel in sight. Hour after hour he drifted, hoping almost against hope, ever thinking of Alma and of a way to help her. About midnight it seemed to him that the rocking motion of the boat had ceased; that it had become stationary.

"Here is a pretty mess!" he exclaimed. "I wonder if this old hulk has run aground. The Caspian is shallow, but I did not think a boat like this could run aground in the middle of it."

An examination in the dark was not easy. Harvey slid down the pile of hay, groping about with one hand while he clung for safety with the other. He fancied he saw a faint light glimmering some distance from him, but it disappeared as suddenly as it had come. He saw the light again, a quick passing from one point to another, but showing for a moment only.

"Now, that light is not on a vessel," Harvey reasoned. "It is a lantern carried around by a person who is walking on land. If I drifted aground here, certainly there cannot be water enough at that place to float any kind of vessel. I've probably drifted on the shore of some island. Is it a hospitable island, or will I be worse off in the clutches of the inhabitants than where I am? The wind may drive me off again before morning and a vessel pick me up. But would the vessel be any safer than this island? And how can I investigate without attracting attention?"

Soon there was another gleam of light such as might come through an open door from a light within. A man was standing between Harvey and the light. He seemed to be looking toward the hayboat, but soon disappeared into the same place from which came the mysterious light.

"It is an island," said Harvey. "I am now resting on a shoal, and the water cannot be very deep between this and the island. I'll swim ashore and risk it."

He removed some of his clothing, made a bundle of it and slid off into the water. To his surprise he could stand on bottom. Carefully he felt his way. For a short distance the water grew more shallow. Then it got deeper, and he was forced to swim. After a short swim he again felt the ground under his feet, and he waded on to dry land. The shore was sandy.

He moved slowly and cautiously. It was difficult to locate where the light had been. He crouched along, wandering in many curves. Trees were on the island, but he could see no trace of a building. After groping some time in the darkness he discovered what appeared to be a rock about five feet high. Feeling the surface of this, he found that it was not a solid rock, but a rocky formation with an opening on one side. Lying flat on the ground and peering in, he saw a light far in the earth, apparently from a lantern hung on a peg. He slowly crawled inside the cave. After advancing for several feet he found that he could stand up and walk.

A voice came from behind a shelter of the rocky wall that projected into the chamber. It pleaded Harvey that it was not the voice of a Russian, for Russians were the only people he had any reason to fear.

"I have spoken," said a calm, stern voice within the concealed chamber. "I have given the treasure as it should be given."

"But, no, my brother," came a voice that seemed to Harvey to tremble with emotion. It was a harsh, cold voice, not like the other. "You have done well for yourself. You have done well for the clans in the mountains. But we have not fared as we should. Was it not our courage that made the accumulation of this booty possible?"

"Yes; that is so," answered the first speaker. "But I am Palpak, chief of the Zannucks, and it was I who planned everything. The wealth that came from the ameer's people were we compelled to hide here until the ameer's soldiers had finished their search among our villages, and the wealth that came from the Buddhist temples, which we found the most valuable of all, and the gold that came from the paymasters of the Russian soldiers whom we attacked and robbed. All these are mine—mine! Do you understand, Domitan? It was Palpak, the chief, who in the interest of all his people, downtrodden as they are by the wicked ameer, strove to gain that with which we could buy horses and cattle and make the Zannucks wealthy. I have given you enough. The rest must be divided among the people."

"No," said a third voice, thick and guttural. "Domitan is right, Palpak, though you be chief. We were with you in all the ventures. It is not right that you should rob us now."

"Rob you?" cried Palpak angrily. "Rob you of what? In the name of the white bull, of what can I rob you when you have nothing save what I am giving you? I tell you I am working not for wealth for you, my brothers, but for the whole people. The Zannucks have been downtrodden and robbed by the ameer. He demands more tribute than we possess. He taxes us for our wives, for our cattle, and then his soldiers steal the cattle. He taxes us for our families, and the soldiers steal our children. Our boys are compelled to enter the ameer's army, and our girls—curses upon the ameer and upon you if you cannot see the justice of what I am doing. But the ameer has desisted from his search. He has some great affair now in progress. It is time we took the treasure to the mountains and distributed it among the people and then begin again to plan."

"It shall not be so! I swear it!"

"There are three of us!" growled the surly voice.

"And we are determined men!" said one who had not spoken before.

"Do you intend to defy me?" demanded the one who called himself Palpak.

The three laughed. "We intend to— you will see what we intend."

Harvey began to catch the drift of things.

"This," he reasoned, "is what is popularly called honor among thieves. Here's a band of four who have been successful in gathering treasure by robbing everything and everybody to enrich a people kept down by that miserable wretch of an ameer. And now the only decent one, if there is such a thing as decency among them, is to be killed so that the other three can keep the treasure instead of putting it to the

"Who are you?" the robbers demanded, use originally intended. Three against one. If I can save the leader, I can no doubt enlist him in my behalf."

He crept to the wall and peered around. A strange sight met his eager gaze. On a wooden peg that had been driven into a crevice of the rocky wall hung a lantern. On the stone floor of the cavern squatted four men in a circle, and between them were many bags of gleaming jewels, bales of choicest fabrics and bags of gold.

It was not difficult to pick out Palpak, for his watchful eyes were roving from one to the other as he remained on his guard against an attack. But the plans of the other three were already laid. It was evidently a preconcerted arrangement. The one called Domitan shouted "Now!" and the three buried themselves upon Palpak.

"Hold on there! Let that man alone!" shouted Harvey, rushing in.

His presence disconcerted the robbers, and they stopped fighting. Domitan, with a curse and gasping for breath, rose to his feet and seized his knife.

"Who are you?" the robbers demanded in chorus.

The four seemed ready to join against Harvey.

"My friends," he said, "permit me to say that this conduct upon my own territory, to which you were not invited, is most unseemly. I am the owner of this island, having just purchased it from the Russian government. I'll have no murder committed here."

"You! The owner of the island of Ping Shong?"

"That's what I said! At this moment I own the island."

"It is a lie!" said Domitan. "You die on your island, then."

He made a rush, but Palpak intercepted him. The other two, recovering from their astonishment, joined with Domitan.

Suddenly from the outer cavern came the rush of booted feet and the clank of arms.

"Seize them all!" commanded Captain Sergius Orskoff to the force of Russian soldiers, who rushed upon the combatants and executed the order before the American and the robbers were aware of their presence.

At the moment Harvey recognized Orskoff the latter exclaimed:

"The American! I have found you at last!"

STRANGE ATTACKS

New Battleship Connecticut Guarded Against Secret Enemies.

STRICT INVESTIGATION

Naval Authorities Hunting Down Treacherous Vandals, but Have Little to Say About It.

Battleship Just Launched Was the Object of Three Mysterious Attacks.

New York, Oct. 4.—Guarded by marines with loaded rifles on board her and on shore with powerful electric searchlights playing over her at night, the newly launched battleship Connecticut, already the object of three serious attacks, lies at her station in the Brooklyn navy yard. The officers are using every conceivable precaution against the recurrences of the mysterious attempts to disable or destroy the new war vessel, and they think they have about rendered it impossible. Marines and secret service men are about her all the time, while about the last official act of Rear Admiral Rodgers, who turned over the command of the yard yesterday to Rear Admiral Coughlan, was to make an appeal to the patriotism of the workmen. While the regulations governing the construction of a vessel are strict, the supervision as strict, even greater precautions will be taken in future. A naval constructor will be on the vessel until she leaves the yard, giving his personal supervision to every detail of the work.

THE CONNECTICUT AS SHE WILL LOOK WHEN COMPLETED.

A strict investigation involving much detective work is under way. Of this the authorities will not talk.

CORRAL COMING

Mexico's Vice President Will Visit World's Fair.

Mexico City, Oct. 4.—Vice President Corral will, it is announced, go to the St. Louis exposition as the representative of President Diaz. He will be accompanied by General Luis Torres of Sonora, and Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Roberto Nunez. The party will leave here this week. The constitutional restriction confining the president to native soil prevents the attendance of President Diaz at the exposition, in which he has expressed much interest.

Missionary Officers Elected.

Denver, Col., Oct. 4.—The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Clinton B. Fisk, New York; recording secretary, Mrs. F. A. Alkin, Cincinnati; treasurer, Mrs. George H. Thompson, Cincinnati; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Della L. Williams, Delaware, Ohio; first vice president, Mrs. Jane Bancroft Robinson, Detroit.

Baseball Scores.

National League—At Philadelphia, 2; Pittsburgh, 1. Second game, Philadelphia, 4; Pittsburgh, 16. At Brooklyn, 0; Cincinnati, 5. Second game, Brooklyn, 1; Cincinnati, 5. At Boston, 5; Chicago, 16. At New York, 3; St. Louis, 1. American League—At Cleveland, 7; Philadelphia, 2. At Chicago, 1; Boston, 4. At Detroit, 3; Washington, 2. At St. Louis, 0; New York, 3.

An Oklahoma Torrent.

Outhrie, O. T., Oct. 4.—The South Canadian river is higher than it has been for years, and at many points wagon and railroad bridges have been swept away. A four-foot wave swept down the swollen stream, carrying structures of wood, stone and steel with it.

A GREAT ATTENDANCE

Will Mark the Meeting of National League of Republican Clubs.

Indianapolis, Oct. 4.—President J. Hampton Moore and his associates in the cabinet of the National Republican League were as busy as bees today, taking care of the incoming delegations and completing arrangements for the convention which will open tomorrow. They are immensely pleased with the amount of work done by the officers of the Lincoln League and the local committees, who are leaving nothing undone to make this one of the most successful conventions in the league's history. President Moore, who is a well-known politician in the East, does not believe the attendance will be large from outside of Indiana, as he said today that the party workers are too busy to leave home, but he pointed out that the delegates who will be here will represent an organization having several hundred thousand members. The interest in Indiana, however, warrants the prediction on the part of the Indiana managers that the crowd will be immense at the two night meetings, as there has been a tremendous demand for tickets.

Governor and Mrs. W. T. Durbin have taken apartments at the Hotel English and will probably reside there till the expiration of the administration the first of next year. The governor and his wife have not had a pleasant experience in one important way during their residence in Indianapolis. Like others who filled the chief executive's office in Indiana, Governor Durbin has found it difficult to get a suitable residence in Indianapolis. The late Governor Mount spent most of his time here living at a hotel. Governor Durbin has been in favor of the state erecting or purchasing a suitable governor's residence, and now that he cannot be accused of a selfish motive it is very likely that he will recommend to the next legislature that an appropriation be made for that purpose. An appropriation for that purpose would probably have been made at the last session had not the men in control been seized by a fit of economy.

The annual grand lodge meeting of the Knights of Pythias was begun here this morning with a very large attendance. Among the conspicuous figures were Charles F. S. Neal, formerly of Lebanon, president of the Endowment Rank. The session will continue two days. It is probable that final action will be taken on a proposition for the grand lodge to build a fine twelve-story office building on the point of Massachusetts avenue and Pennsylvania street. If the building is erected it will probably mean an early removal of the headquarters of the rank from Chicago to this city, a proposition that has been advocated for a long time. The building would be modeled after the famous Flatiron building in New York. Reports submitted by the officers of the grand lodge shows that the order is in fine condition.

Between 300 and 400 people left here today for St. Louis to take part in the celebration of Indianapolis Day tomorrow at the World's Fair. It is expected that at least 5,000 or 6,000 Hoosiers will converge at the Indiana building Wednesday afternoon to swell the crowd and cheer the speakers.

Parker in New York.

New York, Oct. 4.—A glance into Judge Parker's private reception room at his apartments at the Hotel Seville reveals a political workshop equipped almost as completely as his library at Rosemount. It only needs a view of the stacks of correspondence and imposing looking documents to corroborate the report that the Democratic presidential candidate intends spending a great deal of his time between now and election day in New York, where he can keep in close touch with the campaign.

To Observe Prison Sunday.

Indianapolis, Oct. 4.—October 30 Indianapolis, Oct. 4.—October 30 mation regarding the observance and statements about Indiana institutions are being sent over Indiana from the offices of the board of charities and correction. A neat pamphlet stating what Indiana institutions are doing and what they should be, is being distributed, and it is said the observance of "Prison Sunday" will be more general this year than ever before.

Horsethieves Shiver.

Logansport, Ind., Oct. 4.—The National Horsethief Detective association convened here last evening, 1,000 delegates being present. The order is organized only in Indiana, Illinois and Ohio. Its members are pledged to go at a minute's notice to the aid of any member whose horse may be stolen, to assist in the recovery and to punish the thief.

Blame Remains Unfixed.

New York, Oct. 4.—The corner's jury which has been investigating the death of the thirteen persons who lost their lives in the tenement house fire in Attorney street, Sept. 4, has returned a verdict in which they found no persons directly responsible for said death.

Caught at the Crossing.

Columbus, Ind., Oct. 4.—Calip P. Toler, while driving homeward from a visit to his son, Elsworth Toler, at Adams, was caught on a railway crossing and both driver and horse were instantly killed. Mr. Toler was sixty-five years old.

KELLY TALKS OUT

Former Chairman St. Louis House of Delegates Tells How It Was Done.

A BOODLER'S CONFESSION

Details of Grasping Conspiracy to Hold Up a City Set Out With Desperate Frankness.

Kelly Under Conviction Says He Will Reveal More of the Inner Workings.

St. Louis, Oct. 4.—Charles F. Kelly, former speaker of the house of delegates, who is under conviction for perjury in connection with the "boodler" cases, and whose trial for bribery will come up this week, has distributed among the newspaper men a written confession of the circumstances surrounding his flight to Europe when wanted as a witness against Colonel Ed Butler, the noted political "boss" in the lighting bribery case. Kelly declares that Butler gave him $15,000 to flee, and he further declares that an agent of Butler joined him in London and remained with him abroad.

"We had a fixed schedule of prices for various bills, according to the value of the franchise or privileges given," says Kelly's confession in conclusion. "We hardly ever received less than $1,000 for the combine. We considered it beneath our dignity to take less than that. On one or two occasions we got as low as $50 each for our votes, and some of the boys took $5 each, but were ashamed of it because the price was so small. Our combine was not along party lines—both Democrats and Republicans belonged to it. My experience has been that hoodlars line up according to their own interests and not under party standards. In the majority of the wards of St. Louis both the Democratic and Republican parties usually nominate men to go to the house of delegates for the money they can make out of it. Each party man votes for his own fellow and either one that gets in serves those who rob the city of franchises. I believe this has been tolerated in St. Louis because so many of the large corporations of the city are mixed up in boodling one way or another. The heads of these corporations used to think it less trouble to buy what they wanted than to elect honest men to the house of delegates. There are many other things I can and will tell later on, but this will do now. This, in brief, is my story and the confession of my infamy. I believe, though, that if the people of St. Louis allow this man (a prominent politician is named) to go on and control both political parties and put his men in office, the public will be just as guilty as I am today. Such is his hold on the community, though, it seems helpless. If I knew anything I could do that I have not done, to arouse the people of this city and the people of this state to the necessity of putting a stop to corruption, I would gladly do it. I am now suffering the penalty for my crimes, am degraded and disgraced. I don't want to preach, but I do want to sound the alarm to the public, as one would to a friend whose house is on fire. A few weeks ago this man told us we could either get a continuance until a new circuit court was elected, that his man would be put in and our case would be dismissed, or we could plead guilty and stay in jail until next January and he would then see that we were pardoned. I have determined not to be under his domination any longer. I shall endeavor for the rest of my life to atone for the wrongs I have done. I shall have more to say later on."

Evidences of Wholesale Murder.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 4.—Much excitement has been created in the village of Sparta, sixteen miles north, by the discovery of eight skeletons near the town. The discovery was made by three young men who were hunting. A bullet was found in each skull. The region in which the bodies were found was formerly a wild one, and it is thought that the bodies may be those of early settlers, killed by highwaymen.

Railway Disaster in Wales.

London, Oct. 4.—Four persons were killed and it is estimated that about fifty were injured, some of them fatally, in a railway accident near Llanelly, Wales, yesterday afternoon. An express train drawn by two engines was derailed.

Declare for Open Shop.

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 4.—The ten leading laundries of the city have declared "open shop" and as a result 200 men and girls belonging to the laundry workers' union are on a strike.

Towne Gets Nomination.

New York, Oct. 4.—The Democrats of the Fourteenth New York congressional district have nominated Chas. A. Towne, former United States senator from Minnesota.

Disaster at Sawmill.

Coulterville, Ill., Oct. 4.—Two men were killed and seven seriously injured as the result of a boiler explosion in the Schubert sawmill, three miles west of town.

"I suffered for more than five years with ovarian troubles, causing an unpleasant discharge, a great weakness, and at times a faintness would come over me which no amount of medicine, diet, or exercise seemed to correct. Your Vegetable Compound found the weak spot, however, within a few weeks—and saved me from an operation—all my troubles had disappeared, and I found myself once more healthy and well. Words fail to describe the real, true, grateful feeling that is in my heart, and I want to tell every sick and suffering sister. Don't dally with medicines you know nothing about, but take Lydia E. ### Another Case of Ovarian Trouble Cured Without an Operation.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For several years I was troubled with ovarian trouble and a painful and inflamed condition, which kept me in bed part of the time. I did so dread a surgical operation. "I tried different remedies hoping to get better, but nothing seemed to bring relief until a friend who had been cured of ovarian trouble, through the use of your compound, induced me to try it. I took it faithfully for three months, and at the end of that time was glad to find that I was a well woman. Health is nature's best gift to woman, and if you lose it and can have it restored through Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel that all suffering women should know of this."—Mrs. LAURA BELLE COLEMAN, Commercial Hotel, Nashville, Tenn.

Used Ax on Swails.

The democratic state committee used the ax on O. O. Swails of Jackson county, in his contest with Willard Voyles, for prosecutor, says the Orleans Progress-Examiner. Voyles was the choice of the Taggart crowd, and the Taggart machine put him in, notwithstanding Swails had a clear majority of the delegates. The Taggart machine shows no mercy to the democrats who fail to obey its mandates, and perhaps Voyles will agree not to disturb Taggart's gambling houses at French Lick, if he is elected. —Washington Herald.

The way in which the Taggart machine rolled over Swails was sufficient to convince numerous thoughtful democrats that they owe Taggart not even a pleasant look.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.

A Play That Has Drawn Crowds For Thirty Years.

Generations of play-goers have enjoyed "Uncle Tom's Cabin," a story that attracted world wide attention and made history. Throughout the story of slavery days Harriet Beecher Stowe's name will live in history. Nearly every body has read the story and it is difficult to find one who has not seen the play. Yet they do not get tired of it. They go see it every time it comes around just as they go to every circus that comes. There is something about "Uncle Tom's Cabin" that make people want to see it again and again.

Stetson's big Uncle Tom's Cabin company is in the city and will appear at the opeea house tonight. This is said to be the best company on the road playing "Uncle Tom's Cabin." We predict that the opera house will be crowded tonight.

THE STORY OF VINOL.

By The W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Our experience with medicines extends over many years. We've had ample opportunity to watch thousands of them and their results. We've never seen any medicine sell itself as does Vinol. Customer after customer comes for Vinol again and again. That's the best kind of a testimonial. They wouldn't want a second bottle if the first gave no help or relief.

We want everybody in Seymour to know the value of Vinol and how we stand behind it.

Vinol is popular and it takes because it possesses merit. Vinol contains all the curative, strength-giving elements of cod liver oil, without the nauseating, disagreeable taste and smell of the oil. Any one can take it without making a face. Old and young can digest it. There are many imitations of Vinol made from drugs and chemicals which are said to have the same effect as Vinol, but please remember the makers of Vinol are the only ones in the world who know the secret of separating the curative elements of the cod's livers from the oil and grease, and who can make for you a preparation containing all of the real alkaloids or medicinal principles of cod liver oil and not for you with chemicals said to resemble the cod liver oil alkaloids. Therefore there can be nothing else just as "good."

Vinol gives you a hearty appetite. It does more. It tones up the stomach, it builds up the system in many ways. It's a tonic—a blood maker, a flesh creator and tissue builder. It's one of the best things known to medicine for weak lungs, wasting diseases or general debility.

We've sold hundreds of bottles of Vinol and guaranteed them. Hardly one in a hundred comes back to us. If you have not used Vinol we strongly commend it to you. Your money refunded if it does not benefit. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

When You Think About

The pains and aches caused by your eyes, you must not forget that work of this kind is our specialty. That we know the difference between headaches caused by eye strain and the other kind caused by biliousness, catarrh, a worn out stomach, etc. Our guarantee is so broad that our work must be intelligently and knowingly executed, no matter what your physician or any one else may say. Our efforts during the past eleven months speak more loudly than words because our patients has been conscientiously and scientifically treated. If you have a child that comes home daily, complaining about pains in or about the eyes, it is your duty to bring that child to us. We are deserving of your consideration and should have earned your confidence by the manner with which we have handled our hundreds of cases. Your money back, if the work is not satisfactory. Mr. and Mrs. Harsch Optometrists.

OUTPOST FIGHTING

This is About All Noted in the Present War Situation.

Small outpost fights constitute the sum of the activities reported from the vicinity of Mukden. The Japanese blockade of Port Arthur is so effective that General Stoessel has been unable to inform the war office at St. Petersburg of the situation there. The report of the arrival of the Russian armored cruiser Bayan of the Port Arthur squadron at Hanchau bay, near Shanghai, has no official confirmation.

No Official News.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 4.—There is intense interest here in developments at Mukden, but the public and apparently the authorities also are utterly in the dark as to what is transpiring. The little news received from Port Arthur comes from abroad, but that little is satisfactory, inasmuch as it records a further repulse of the Japanese attacks.

Situation at Mukden.

Mukden, Oct. 4.—The situation is unchanged. The Japanese are active westward of Mukden. The Russian cavalry forces are strong in that direction, their horses are in splendid condition, and the roads are good. The Japanese are also active eastward and have been reinforced.

It Was a Hoax.

Shanghai, Oct. 4.—An investigation shows that there is no Russian man-of-war at Gutzlaff Island in Hengchau bay or in these waters. The report that the Russian armored cruiser Bayan has anchored off Gutzlaff Island is a hoax.

Senator Hoar's Funeral.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 4.—Funeral services for United States Senator George Frisbie Hoar were held here Monday. In the presence of many persons representing societies and associations, the city of Worcester, the commonwealth of Massachusetts, and the congress of the United States, the favorite hymns of the dead statesman were sung, the 90th Psalm was read, and Edward Everett Hale, chaplain of the senate, spoke words eulogizing the man who had been his friend for many years. Public and private business in the city was suspended. Buildings were draped and pictures of Senator Hoar were generally displayed with symbols of mourning in the windows. The services, which were held in the little Church of Unity which Senator Hoar attended, in accordance with the wishes of the senator, were of a most unceremonious nature. Less than an hour was taken up with the simple exercises at the church, and after those present had taken a final look at the face of the senator, the body was removed to city hall to lie in state. Today the body was taken to Concord for burial.

Puts Bar on Convention Cities.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 4.—Secretary Shepard announces that the National Educational Association will not hereafter meet in exposition cities, and for that reason the scheduled convention to be held at Portland during the Lewis and Clark centennial has been canceled.

Boy's Hand Mangled.

Valparaiso, Ind., Oct. 4.—John Stutesman, thirteen years old, caught his left hand in a cane mill and it was practically chopped to pieces before the machinery could be stopped. Amputation was had above the wrist.

Great Hearing in San Francisco. San Francisco, Oct. 4.—Senator Fairbanks, Republican candidate for vice president, and Senator Fulton of Oregon, last night addressed an immense audience at Mechanics pavilion in this city.

Will Watch Indiana. New York, Oct. 4.—Joseph T. Fanning of Indianapolis, who has been assisting Chairman Tamm at Democratic headquarters, left for Indiana today to look after the campaign in that state.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. For sale by C. W. Milbous.

May Lose Its Charter.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—A letter from President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor to the officials of the Chicago Federation of Labor declares that unless the latter organization complies with the rules of the American Federation by Nov. 1 it will be expelled. The communication was in relation to a dispute between two organizations of plumbers.

Held on Murder Charge.

Lancaster, Ohio, Oct. 4.—Charles Basore, Peter Schreider and John Lloyd have been arrested here charged with the murder on Jan. 10 last of W. M. Hay, Baltimore & Ohio station agent at Thornville, Ohio. Hay was assaulted and robbed of $100.

If troubled with a weak digestion try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will do you good. For sale by C. W. Milbous.

Kidney Diseases Worst of All.

How to Cure These Dangerous and Fatal Maladies.

No one can afford to let a kidney disease continue unchecked a moment after he has discovered its presence. This is especially true of Bright's disease, the most dangerous and fatal of them all. The treacherous manner in which it attacks its victims enables it to become firmly established before its presence is discovered. Dr. Colwell's Egyptian Kidney and Bladder Cure never fails, and is guaranteed to cure inflammation of the kidneys, congestions, Bright's disease in its early stages, brick dust deposits, cloudy urine, pains in the back and kidneys, retention and incontinence of urine, bed wetting, diseases of the bladder and urinary tract, sexual weakness in both men and women, restoring to health and imparting to the genitourinary organs renewed vitality and vigor.

"Your Dr. Colwell's Egyptian Kidney and Bladder Cure is a most excellent remedy as I know from my personal experience with it. I have had serious kidney and bladder trouble with considerable pain. This was a repetition of trouble a year back. I tried one bottle, and the relief was so great, I ordered two bottles of you by express, and am glad to say that I am all right now and recommend this medicine fully to any one suffering with these difficulties."

Truly yours, W. F. Black, Cleveland, O.

Dr. Colwell's Egyptian Kidney and Bladder Cure is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money will be refunded. It is for sale at $1.00 a bottle by

W. F. PETER DRUG CO.

Postmaster General Dying.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Postmaster General Payne is barely alive and all hope has been abandoned. It is announced that he is just lingering, and while he might last some hours, the end might come at any moment. No stimulants are being administered and the physicians are allowing nature to take its course.

Cause of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by C. W. Milbous.

COULDN'T STAND IT

Geronimo Wearies of the Sights at the Fair.

CHIEF GERONIMO.

Geronimo has been at the World's Fair since June and recently asked permission of Superintendent McGowan of the Indian school, to return home, saying he was homesick.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by C. W. Milbous.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE

This Is What Is Sought by Organization Now Being Perfected.

SEEKING A LOCATION

Secretary Scullin of the Organization Desires to Establish Main Office at Indianapolis.

He Is Securing Evidences That the People of Indiana Capital Are Interested.

Indianapolis, Oct. 4.—P. H. Scullin, secretary of the National Industrial Peace association, has begun to secure satisfactory proof that this city should have the headquarters of the association. This proof is to consist of the endorsements of employers, union men and merchants, and will be submitted to the directors of the association when Mr. Scullin goes to San Francisco about two weeks hence. Mr. Scullin says that personally he believes this city should have the headquarters, but some evidence must be submitted to the directors, showing that the people of Indianapolis are in favor of the movement for universal peace between capital and labor. There are now nearly one hundred members in the local organization, and Mr. Scullin believes that this may be increased readily to 200 within a week. He will devote his time to efforts to interest the employers, the unions and the pastors of the city, and will employ assistants to interest the merchants. Each evening he will speak before two or more local unions.

BREWERY WAR IS ON

It May Result in 100 More Saloons at Terre Haute.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 4.—A brewery war is on in Terre Haute, and it is believed that at least a hundred more saloons will be started by the time the new Mutual company's brewery begins brewing beer, seven months from now. The company was organized by saloon keepers and some of their friends, notably ex-Mayor Steeg. The Terre Haute Brewing company, the Crawford Fairbanks company, tried to head off the people's company, but failed. Now both sides are securing options on property available for saloon business. The Fairbanks company in the past has had to meet the agencies of the Milwaukee, St. Louis and Indianapolis breweries, and had an advantage on the ground of being a home institution, giving ice free in summer and coal free in winter to the poor. For a number of years Fairbanks had the police department at his service, but now the war is to be in actual competition in the sale of beer.

Murder Trial at Bedford.

Bedford, Ind., Oct. 4.—David Beasley and Henry Tow are on trial in the Lawrence circuit court charged with killing Charles and James Routh at Bryansville in June. Both Beasley and Tow are under twenty-one years of age. Both sides desire a speedy trial and intense interest is being manifested by people here. Milton Tow, a brother of Henry Tow, will be tried Thursday charged with assault and battery at Bryansville during the killing. The murder for which the men are to be tried was the result of a family feud.

Interesting Communal Experiment.

Elkhart, Ind., Oct. 4.—Ten girls employed by the Lakeside Knitting company, which recently removed its plant from Michigan City to this city, are living on the co-operative basis. They lease rooms in the home of Mrs. Emily E. Weaver, and all expenses are paid from a common fund, to which each girl contributes her proportion. They will attempt to show that women can live profitably and pleasantly together in an Adamless Eden.

Coroner Scouts Suicide Theory.

Huntington, Ind., Oct. 4.—The coroner holds that the circumstances attending the death of Mrs. Jacob Strowl, who was killed by a bullet in the brain, do not uphold the theory of suicide. The bullet was fired from the rear, passing through her brain and lodging against the frontal bone. The investigation is being continued and an arrest may follow.

A Boy and a Gun.

Hartford City, Ind., Oct. 4.—The dead body of the eleven-year-old son of J. W. Cummings was found near his father's home, with a gunshot wound in the roof of his mouth. It is the supposition that he undertook to blow in the barrel of his gun, and the weapon was accidentally discharged.
